- c) Persons currently holding positions of trust and responsibility in reputed organisations or person who have retired from such positions.
- d) Persons who are likely to have interested positions in commercial contracts and financial affairs of stock exchanges, may be excluded. Also, persons who are regular traders/speculators in the market or are director in the board of the promoter entity of the Exchange shall be excluded.

1.4 Public interest directors shall not be simultaneously on the Board of subsidiary of the Company or on the Board of any other stock exchange/ clearing corporation/ depository or their subsidiary.

1.5 Public interest directors shall peruse the relevant laws, code of conduct, code of ethics, etc and submit an undertaking to the Exchange that they are aware of their role, responsibilities and obligations. The Exchange shall also provide at least seven days of training to every public interest director each year.

1.6 In case of extension of the term of the public interest director or appointment of a new public interest director, the Exchange shall apply to SEBI two months prior to the expiry of the term. In addition to the other requirements prescribed, the application for extension of term of the public interest director shall be accompanied with, his attendance details on meetings of various mandatory committees and on the Board of Directors of the stock exchange, performance review and the reasons for extension of the term.

1.7 The public interest director shall not be subject to retirement by rotation.

1.8 The existing public interest director shall continue holding the post, till a new public interest director is appointed in his place.

1.9 A person may be nominated as a public interest director for a maximum of three terms across recognised stock exchanges/recognised clearing corporations / depositories, subject to a maximum age limit of seventy five years.

2.0 A public interest director shall not act simultaneously as a member on more than five committees of the Company. The limitation on maximum number of committees that a public interest director can be member of shall be applicable only to statutory committees prescribed by SEBI under SECC.

2.1 A public interest director shall keep the Board apprised of any conflict of interest, which may arise as a result of the public interest director providing services, either directly or indirectly, to any trading member or clearing member or their associates and agents.

2.2 No public interest director shall become a shareholder director unless there is a cooling-off period of three years after ceasing to be a public interest director.

2.3 No public interest director on the board of a recognized stock exchange or a recognized clearing corporation, shall become a director on the board of subsidiary of that recognized stock exchange or recognized clearing corporation, as the case may be, unless there is a cooling-off period of three years after ceasing to be a public interest director.

The Article no. 126C is amended as under:

126C (1) No trading member or clearing member, or their associates and agents, irrespective of the stock exchange / clearing corporation of which they are members, shall be on the Board of Directors of the Exchange.

(2) No foreign portfolio investor shall have any representation in the Board of Directors of the Exchange.

The Article no. 153 is amended as under:

Question at a Board meeting, how decided

153.The voting on a resolution in the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be valid only when the number of public interest directors who have cast their vote on such resolution is equal or more than the number of shareholder directors who have cast their vote on such resolution. The casting vote in the meetings of the Board of Directors shall be with the Chairman of the meeting (whether the Chairman appointed by virtue of these Articles or the Director presiding at such meeting).

The Article no. 154 is amended as under:

Quorum and its competence to exercise powers

154.The quorum for meeting of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be one-third of its total strength (any fraction contained in that one-third being rounded off to the next one) or two Directors whichever is higher and the participation of the directors by video conferencing or by other audio visual means shall also be counted for the purpose of quorum; provided that where at any meeting, the number of interested Directors exceeds or is equal to two-thirds of the total strength, the number of the remaining Directors, that is to say, the number of the Directors who are not interested, present at the meeting being not less than two, shall be the quorum during such time. Further, the number of public interest directors shall not be less than the number of shareholder directors to constitute the quorum for the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Any Director participating through Electronic Mode in respect of restricted items with the express permission of Chairman shall however, neither be entitled to vote nor be counted for the purpose of Quorum in respect of such restricted items.

Quorum shall be present throughout the Meeting. Quorum shall be present not only at the time of commencement of the Meeting but also while transacting business.

For the purpose of this Article:-

(1) "total strength" means the total strength of the Directors of the Company as determined in pursuance of the Act, after deducting there from the number of the Directors, if any, whose place may be vacant at the time;

(2) "interested Director" means any Director whose presence cannot by reason of Article 136 or any other provision in the Act count for the purpose of forming a quorum at a meeting of the Board, at the time of the discussion or vote on any matter.

The Article no. 156A is amended as under:

Board Committees

156A. The Company shall constitute Committees as to ensure effective oversight of the functioning of the Exchange as mandated under the Companies Act, 2013, SECC and Circulars issued from time to time. Additionally, the Committees that are mandated for listed companies shall apply mutatis mutandis to Exchange. The Exchange shall lay down the policy for the frequency of meetings, quorum, etc., for the statutory committees. The composition, terms of reference, frequency and quorum requirements of the Committees may be decided by the Board in line with the requirements of SECC and circulars issued by SEBI from time to time, and any other applicable law. In the case of public interest directors' committee, all public interest directors shall be present.

Independent external persons appointed to committees: The independent external persons shall be from amongst the persons of integrity, having a sound reputation and not having any conflicts of interests. They shall be specialists in the field of work assigned to the committee. They shall not be associated with the Exchange and its members. The Exchange shall frame the guidelines for appointment, tenure, code of conduct, etc., of independent external persons. Extension of the tenure may be granted at the expiry of the tenure, subject to performance review in the manner prescribed by SEBI for the public interest directors. The maximum tenure limit of independent external persons in a Committee of the Exchange shall be at par with that of public interest directors as prescribed under SECC.
